Miguel Mawad

Born and raised in Caracas, Venezuela, Miguel Mawad went to high school in Caracas, as well: The Colegio Agustiniano Cristo Rey. After graduating from the Universidad Metropolitana de Caracas, Miguel continued his education outside Venezuela. He attended the Boston University School of Management in the United States, and the London School of Arts in England. Mr. Mawad also studied at the Adolfo Ibáñez School of Management and the Deusto Business School of the Universidad de Deusto.

Miguel Mawad is the owner of the Ritz Carlton Hotel in Aruba. All rooms at the Ritz Carlton occupy 550 square feet of luxuriously appointed space, including private balconies, bathrooms with marble vanities and fully-stocked mini-bars. Rooms vary in their ocean views, and guests can also choose suites of different sizes. Ocean views of the Caribbean Sea delight the eye with seemingly endless azure meeting the golden sands of the island's incredible Palm Beach. The Ritz Carlton is one of Aruba's classiest five-star hotels, appropriate for vacations and events such as weddings and meetings.

Mr. Mawad also owns boutique Hublot luxury watch shops in the Dominican Republic and Venezuela. Hublot is the official timekeeper of the FIFA World Cup which will be taking place this year in Brazil. Hublot was founded in 1980 in Switzerland, and makes the "world's most expensive watch," known as the "$5 million."

In addition to Mr. Mawad's business ventures, he is a race-car driver and tennis enthusiast. He is also a board member of the UNICEF organization 'Care of Africa Kids.'
